Newspaper - Ellen V. will take over editorship of Right on Time and become a member of National Staff in that capacity, remaining in her position a director of Manhattan Center. Norma will join the news staff full time in production and also join the National Staff. Emily continues to have leadership responsibility for getting the paper out and on to the street. Fred, Hazel and Ellen will provide analytical leadership. Boro directors will write weekly articles, Hazel will write weekly article. National Staff must have on-going sense of where the paper is at and how we're organizing with it each week.

Money and CFC and LC - Call will prepare a presentation of Labor Committee finances for the next meeting of National.

State of CFC - The organization as a whole has taken big conceptual and political strides, particularly in the last week. Workers are taking on the full responsibility for internalizing and expressing our political tendencies. CFC/Nuwro locals have made major political conceptual breakthroughs in understanding Rockefeller's game plan for the city, and the ~~world~~ world.

Fred will call the next meeting, for some time this week.
